What Betty's been up to...

- Betty had arthroscopic knee surgery for a torn meniscus in June, and managed to "lose" the cane. She is presently "too young" (at my age, this sounds great) for eventual knee replacement.
- She set up a scholarship in memory of her graduate advisor, Dr. Keiser, who passed away in April. <http://www.bettycjung.net/Keiser.htm>

Betty, the Epidemiologist

- Is now Connecticut's Cardiovascular AND Diabetes Epidemiologist (at the same pay)
- Has been back at the health department for 2 ½ yrs!!!
- In September, conducted a session in Minnesota, at the national training institute for cardiovascular program managers that was sponsored by the CDC

Betty, the Professor

- Taught 2 semesters of a writing course, "Introduction to Public Health"
- Collected numerous examples of 21st century English - <http://www.bettycjung.net/Udid.htm>

Will go back to teaching Wellness in January, to a class of 40
