BETTY

- Semi-retired: As of July, 2009. Before retiring Betty presented at the 2009 National Diabetes Translation Conference in California - "Implementing Gestational Diabetes Surveillance in Connecticut" and a family health history tutorial at a state-wide genomics meeting.
- Professor: Has been teaching for 11 years, as of Fall 2009! Will continue and in the spring teach 2 sections, each with 35 budding minds.
- Webmaster: Has maintained a Web presence now for 10 years!
<http://www.bettyjung.net>
- PHENOM Director: 48 online mentors.
<http://www.bettyjung.net/Phenom.htm>
- National Commission for Health Education Credentialing: Continues into her 2nd of a 5-year term as member of the Division Board for Certification of Health Education Specialists (NCHES). Gets to travel twice a year to Allentown, PA.
- Alumni Surveys Program Director: Still sending out those surveys.
- Marine Corps Marathon Corps Volunteer: 5th year of helping hundreds get ready for the big run (better than me...).
- Since retiring, lost 16 pounds (or, blew away 56,000 calories!) just from walking one hour every day and cutting out bad protein, carbs and fats!
